The purpose of the Mexico Public Library is to support the development of an informed community through literacy and by collecting, transmitting and ensuring open access to the world's ideas and information through materials, resources and programs.

We especially recognize our responsibility to serve as a place for children to develop life long reading skills, as well as to discover the joy of reading and the value of libraries to our communities.

Quotes from you:

"Mexico Public Library is simply the best! Friendly, helpful staff. The wide range of activities year round that are planned with a variety of interests in mind. I also love the yearly art display at Christmas in Mexico! Thank you for all you offer to our community!!"

"They have so many activities for kids!"

"They're so friendly and helpful!"

"I love that the Mexico Library creates a sense of community connection and is very active out as a part of community events to foster a love of reading and books in people of all ages. I also love the variety of literary selections and how I see so many people light up and connect with books that resonate with their interests and lives."
